1. Leave: Any leave previously approved shall not be rescinded as a result of the proposed changes. Management shall not charge any employee leave as a result of the proposed changes if the employee has not requested leave for personal reasons.
2. Training: Any training previously approved shall not be rescinded as a result of the proposed changes.
3. Packing Time: All affected employees shall be provided packing materials and granted sufficient time during the work day to box their office belongings on the designated date, and to unpack their belongings upon completion of the proposed moves/furniture replacement. Employees shall not be required to pack or unpack outside of duty hours. Employees shall not be required to lift, move, or carry boxes outside of their immediate work space.
4. Disruption of Work Site: Management will permit affected employees to telework while the work site is unavailable at the option of the employees. Any situational telework shall be on a voluntary basis. Employees shall provide supervisors with a contact number at which they may be reached while teleworking, but shall not otherwise be required to publicize their private home or cell telephone numbers. There shall be no adverse impact on any employee for whom teleworking is not feasible while the office is disrupted.
5. Adverse Impact: There shall be no adverse impact on any affected employee as a result of the proposed changes, including but not limited to reasonable accommodations, alternative work schedules, and telework agreements.

6. Preservation of Rights: Implementation of an agreement related to the proposed FPM moves shall not diminish or waive any rights that bargaining unit employees have under the HUD-AFGE Collective Bargaining Agreement, law, or government-wide rule or regulation.
